 NACCW
NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF CHILD CARE WORKERS

A Professional Association
Committed to Child and Youth Care Workers!

Join...

You may work in a child and youth care center, or a community-based organisation. You may work in residential care, or in the community.

But wherever you work, it is in the lifespace of vulnerable and at risk children and youth and their families.

Standing together with colleagues helps to develop you - and our profession.

So join a professional association dedicated to you - feel supported and connected to the field of child and youth care work.

Let's do it together!

Benefits offered to NACCW members

- Membership structures in ten regions and sub-regions around South Africa.
- A professional services department with its own permanent staff.
- SAQA accredited training delivered by regional and contract trainers.
- Regular members' meetings, forums, seminars and conferences, both regionally and nationally.
- A quarterly journal and other literature resources for the child and youth care field
- A 25% discount off all training course fees and all conference and meeting charges
